INTRODUCTION

Solan, often referred to as the Mushroom City of India is picturesque town in the foothills of The Himalayas. In addition to its natural beauty and agricultural prowess, Solan boasts of historical landmarks, religious sites like Shoolini and Jatoli temple and recreational opportunities. The town serves as an important educational, cultural and commercial hub in the region. Govt. College Solan is premier institute of state which imparts quality education to students.

Govt. College, Solan was established on 19th August 1959 to cater the needs of higher education, in the streams of Humanities, Science, Commerce, Computer Applications and Fine Arts at undergraduate level. Professional courses such as BBA, BCA and PGDCA are running very successfully in the college and have helped many of them to complete efficiently in the present day job market. Students of the college can have internet accessibility in computer labs.

The computer laboratories are equipped with high configuration and up-to-date systems. A well stocked library offers wide range of books in all streams. Recently the process of computerization of library has been launched through INFLIBNET, UGC sponsored library automation program. The library teachers and many students have already got an access to E-Resources and E-books that have been made available through N-LIST of INFLIBNET.

The college also provides facilities for NCC (Boys and Girls), NSS and other cultural and sports activities that help in development of wholeness in the personality of students.
